MOVANT'S (97.92.47.116) REPLY TO "PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO MOVANT'S OBJECTION TO COURT'S ORDER"

Now comes this Movant, identified by IP address 97.92.47.116, represented by Counsel, and files a Reply to "Plaintiff's Response To Movant's Objection To Court's Order." In short, Plaintiff indicates there was no basis for an objection.

However, Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(c)(2)(B) Objections, provides that, "[a] person commanded to produce documents...may serve on the party or attorney...a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing...or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested."

Thus, an objection was filed. There is no question Plaintiff's counsel received it (given the Response herein). That objection specifically was captioned as a Notice Of Objection and directly objected to disclosure of Movant's information pursuant to the subpoena. That Objection was not only proper, but warranted.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: February 13, 2013
